David decries flattering lips and proud tongues--

He says, The words of the Lord are pure words. To the chief Musician upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

1. C F
Help, Lord; for the godly man ceaseth;
C F
For the faithful fail from among the children of men.
2. G F
They speak vanity every one with his neighbour:
G F
With flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.
3. C F
The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips,
C F
And the tongue that speaketh proud things:
G F
Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail;
G F
Our lips are our own: who is lord over us?
C F
For the oppression of the poor,
C F
For the sighing of the needy,
G F
Now will I arise, saith the Lord;
G F
I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.
6. C F
The words of the Lord are pure words:
C F
As silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.
7. G F
Thou shalt keep them, O Lord,
G F
Thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.
8. C F
The wicked walk on every side,
C F
When the vilest men are exalted.
1. G F G F C
Help, Lord; for the godly man ceaseth;
G F G F C
For the faithful fail from among the children of men.
