David prays morning, noon, and night--He seeks protection and help against his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

1.           C       F           C F
Give ear to my prayer, O God
          C       F       G       C
And hide not thyself from my supplication
D       G       D G
2.           D           G       A       D
Attend unto me, and hear me
I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise
3.           C       F       C       F
Because of the voice of the enemy
          C       F           G       C
Because of the oppression of the wicked
D       G       D       G
For they cast iniquity upon me
D G A D
And in wrath they hate me
14.          I       G       C       G       C
My heart is sore pained within me
I       G           C       D       G
I       And the terrors of death are fallen upon me
5.           C           F           C       F
Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me
          C       F G       C
And horror hath overwhelmed me
D       G           D       G
6.           D           G       A       D
And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove!
For then would I fly away, and be at rest
7.           C           F       C       F
Lo, then would I wander far off
          C       F G       C
And remain in the wilderness
D       G       D G
8.           D           G       A       D
I would hasten my escape
From the windy storm and tempest

- I G C G C
 19. Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues
 I G C D G
 I For I have seen violence and strife in the city
- C F C F
 10. Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof
 C F G C
 Mischievous also and sorrow are in the midst of it
 D G D G
 11. Wickedness is in the midst thereof
 D G A D
 Deceit and guile depart not from her streets
- C F C F
 12. For it was not an enemy that reproached me
 C F G C
 Then I could have borne it
 D G D G
 Neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me
 D G A D
 Then I would have hid myself from him
- I G C G C
 113. But it was thou, a man mine equal
 I G C D G
 I My guide, and mine acquaintance
- C F C F
 14. We took sweet counsel together
 C F G C
 And walked unto the house of God in company
 D G D G
 15. Let death seize upon them and let them go down
 D G A D
 Quick into hell for wickedness is in their dwellings and among them
- C F C F
 16. As for me, I will call upon God
 C F G C
 And the Lord shall save me
 D G D G
 17. Evening, and morning, and at noon
 D G A D
 Will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice
- I G C G C
 118. He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me
 I G C D G
 I For there were many with me

19. C F C F
 God shall hear, and afflict them
 C F G C
 Even he that abideth of old
 D G D G
 Because they have no changes
 D G A D
 Therefore they fear not God
20. C F C F
 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him
 C F G C
 He hath broken his covenant
 D G D G
21. The words of his mouth were smoother than butter
 D G A D
 But war was in his heart
- I G C G C
 I His words were softer than oil
 I G C D G
 I Yet were they drawn swords
22. C F C F
 Cast thy burden upon the Lord
 C F G C
 And he shall sustain thee
 D G D G
 He shall never suffer
 D G A D
 The righteous to be moved
23. C F C F
 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down
 C F G C
 Into the pit of destruction
 D G D G
 Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days
 D G A D
 But I will trust in thee :| 2x
