*David praises God as his defense, his rock, and his salvation--The Lord judges men according to their works.
To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.*

1. C F C G
Truly my soul waiteth upon God
C F C G
From him cometh my salvation
F G C A^m
2. He only is my rock and my salvation
F G C
He is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved

3. C F C G
How long will ye imagine mischief against a man?
C F C G
Ye shall be slain all of you
F G C A^m
As a bowing wall shall ye be
F G C
And as a tottering fence

4. C F C G
They only consult to cast him down from his excellency
C F C G
They delight in lies
F G C A^m
They bless with their mouth
F G C
But they curse inwardly

5. C F C G
My soul, wait thou only upon God
C F C G
For my expectation is from him
F G C A^m
6. He only is my rock and my salvation
F G C
He is my defence; I shall not be moved
7. C F C G
In God is my salvation and my glory
C F C G
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God
F G C A^m
8. Trust in him at all times; ye people
F G C
Pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us
9. C F C G
Surely men of low degree are vanity
C F C G
And men of high degree are a lie
F G C A^m
To be laid in the balance
F G C
They are altogether lighter than vanity
10. C F C G
Trust not in oppression
C F C G
And become not vain in robbery
F G C A^m
If riches increase
F G C
Set not your heart upon them
11. C F C G
God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this
C F C G
That power belongeth unto God
F G C A^m
12. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy
F G C (Last) F C
For thou renderest to every man according to his work :l 2x ... work
