C G C G C
All I need is a little time
G C D G
All I need is love
G C G C
All I need is to know that you care
G C D G
All I need is love

1 D C
My son was sad today
G C
He didn't want to go and play
G C D A
He just wanted to stay here with me
D C
Said he wanted to run away
G C
And go someplace else to stay
G C D A
But one look in his eyes and I could see

C G C G C
All he needs is a little time
G C D G
All he needs is love
G C G C
All he needs is to know that I care
G C D G
All he needs is love

2 D C
My wife is tired tonight
G C
The days been a long fight
G C D A
She just wants to rest her weary feet
D C
With five kids to keep in sight
G C
It taxes all her might
G C D A
And without much help it's no wonder she's beat

C G C G C
All she needs is a little time
G C D G
All she needs is love
G C G C
All she needs is to know that I care
G C D G
All she needs is love

3 D C
I seem so far behind
G C
And then I go and find
G C D A
A thousand new jobs I need to do
D C
Why do I get in such a bind
G C
Where I need friends so kind
G C D A
Then I find myself calling up to you

C G C G C
All I need is a little time
G C D G
All I need is love
G C G C
All I need is to know that you care
G C D G
All I need is love

The righteous cry unto the Lord--They remember the wonders of old, how He redeemed the sons of Jacob and led Israel like a flock. To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of Asaph.

I G C G C
11 I cried unto God with my voice
I G C D G
I Even unto God with my voice
I G C G C
I And he gave ear unto me
I G C D G
12 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord:

D C G C
My sore ran in the night, and ceased not
G C D A
My soul refused to be comforted
D C G C
3 I remembered God, and was troubled
G C D A
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed

I G C G C
14 Thou holdest mine eyes waking
I G C D G
I I am so troubled that I cannot speak
I G C G C
15 I have considered the days of old
I G C D G
I The years of ancient times

D C G C
6 I call to remembrance my song in the night
G C
I commune with mine own heart
D A
and my spirit made diligent search
D C G C
7 Will the Lord cast off for ever?
G C D A
And will he be favourable no more?

I G C G C
18 Is his mercy clean gone for ever?
I G C D G
I Doth his promise fail for evermore?
I G C G C
19 Hath God forgotten to be gracious?
I G C D G
I Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies?

D C G C
10 And I said, This is my infirmity
G C
But I will remember the years
D A
of the right hand of the most High
D C G C
11 I will remember the works of the Lord
G C D A
Surely I will remember thy wonders of old

I G C G C
112 I will meditate also of all thy work
I G C D G
I And talk of thy doings
I G C G C
113 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary
I G C D G
I Who is so great a God as our God?

14           D                           C
 Thou art the God that doest wonders
 G
 Thou hast declared thy strength
           C
           among the people
 G                           C
 15    Thou hast with thine arm redeemed
           D    A
           thy people
           D                           C
 The sons of Jacob and Joseph
 G
 16    The waters saw thee, O God
           C
           the waters saw thee
 G                           C                           D    A
 They were afraid: the depths also were troubled

I           G                           C
 17    The clouds poured out water
 I           G                           C
 I           the skies sent out a sound
 I           G                           C    D    G
 I           Thine arrows also went abroad
 I    G                           C                           G    C
 18    The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven
           G                           C
 I           The lightnings lightened the world
 I           D                           G
 I           the earth trembled and shook

19           D                           C
 Thy way is in the sea,
           G                           C
           and thy path in the great waters
 G                           C                           D    A
 And thy footsteps are not known
 D                           C                           G    C
 20    Thou leddest thy people like a flock
 G    C                           D    A
 By the hand of Moses and Aaron

 G                           C    G    C
 1    (I cried unto God with my voice
 G                           C                           D    C
 Even unto God with my voice
 G                           C    G    C
 And he gave ear unto me.
 G                           C                           D            G
 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord) :!2x
