Israel is commanded to sing praises to God--If the Israelites had walked in the Lord's ways, they would have triumphed over their enemies. To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of Asaph.

1.

A G D A G D
Sing aloud unto God our strength
A G D A G D
Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob

2.

A G D A G D
Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel
A G D A A A
The pleasant harp with the psaltery

13.

I G
Blow up the trumpet in the new moon
I D
In the time appointed, on our solemn feast day

14.

I A
For this was a statute for Israel
I E
And a law of the God of Jacob

5.

A G D A G D
This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony
A G D A G D
When he went out through the land of Egypt
A G D A G D
Where I heard a language
A G D A A A
That I understood not

16.

I G D
I removed his shoulder from the burden, His hands were delivered from the pots

17.

I A E
Thou calledst in trouble, And I delivered thee

8.

A G D A G D
I answered thee in the secret place of thunder
A G D A G D
I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah
A G D A G D
Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee
A G D A A A
O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me

I G
 19. There shall no strange god be in thee
 I D
 I Neither shalt thou worship any strange god
 I A
 110. I am the Lord thy God
 I E
 I Which brought thee out of the land of Egypt

11. A G D A G D
 Open thy mouth wide
 A G D A G D
 And I will fill it
 A G D A G D
 But my people would not hearken to my voice
 A G D A A A
 And Israel would none of me

I G
 112. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust
 I D
 I And they walked in their own counsels
 I A
 113. Oh that my people had hearkened unto me
 I E
 I And Israel had walked in my ways!

14. A G D A G D
 I should soon have subdued their enemies
 A G D A G D
 And turned my hand against their adversaries
 A G D A G D
 15. The haters of the Lord should have submitted themselves unto him
 A G D A A A
 But their time should have endured for ever

I G D
 116. He should have fed them also With the finest of the wheat
 I A E
 I And with honey out of the rock Should I have satisfied thee

1. A G D A G D
 Sing aloud unto God our strength
 A G D A G D
 Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob
 A G D A G D
 2. Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel
