1.           E           G           A           C
Why do I care what others think of me?
E           G           A           B
Why can't I see they don't care how my kids comb their hair?
E           G           A           C
What does it matter if I am misjudged?
E           G           A           B
Who keeps a grudge near as long as my mind's chatter?
- C           G   F           A<sup>m</sup>
C:   Unfounded fears, clutter my mind today
C           G           F           E
Reactions that say things, bringing loved ones to tears
C           G   F           A<sup>m</sup>
Unrecognized scars cut deep in my memory banks
C           G           F           E           A<sup>m</sup>
Left there with thanks, malicious intent as far away as Mars
2.           E           G   A           C
Who is it that I fear will get to me?
E           G           A           B
How can I be driven by someone who can't wear a hat?
E           G           A           C
Why do invisible men move me to impossible ends?
E           G           A           B
What message sends me forth like a startled wren?
3.           E           G   A           C
When will I forget the things I don't remember?
E           G           A           B
What are the embers bringing fire to the unaware target?
E           G           A           C
Where is the calm promised to those who seek His rest?
E           G           A           B
Why strive for the best if you don't find life's balm?
4.           E           G   A           C
Which way to go in search for the right answers?
E           G           A           B
What are the cancers that keep me feeling low?
E           G           A           C
How do you stop the spread to thoughts and to words?
E           G           A           B
Where are the swords to cut off the mental tops?
