The Lord is gracious and full of compassion--Holy and reverend is His name--The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

1.           G           C
Praise ye the Lord
D           G
I will praise the Lord
G           C
With my whole heart
D           G
In the assembly of the upright
F           C           G
And in the congregation

2.           G           C
The works of the Lord
D G
Are great
G           C
Sought out of
D G
All them
F           C           G
That have pleasure therein

3.           G C
His work is
D           G
Honourable
G           C
And glorious
D           G
And his righteousness
F           C           G
Endureth for ever

4.           G           C
He hath made
D           G
His wonderful works
G           C
To be remembered
D           G
The Lord is gracious
F           C           G
And full of compassion

5.           G           C
He hath given
D           G
Meat unto them
G           C
That fear him
D           G
He will ever be mindful
F C           G
Of his covenant

6.           G           C
He hath shewed
D           G
His people
G           C
The power of his works
D           G
That he may give them
F           C           G
The heritage of the heathen

7.           G C
The works
D           G
Of his hands
G           C
Are verity and judgment
D           G
All his commandments
F C G
Are sure

8.           G           C
They stand fast
D           G
For ever and ever
G           C
And are done
D           G
In truth and uprightness

9.           G           C
He sent redemption
D           G
Unto his people
G           C
He hath commanded
D           G
His covenant for ever
F           C           G
Holy and reverend is his name

10.          G           C
The fear of the Lord
D           G
Is the beginning of wisdom
G           C
A good understanding
D G
Have all they
F           C           G
That do his commandments
F           C           G
His praise endureth for ever
F C G
(And forever)
