Let all things praise the Lord: men and angels, the heavenly bodies, the elements and the earth, and all things thereon.

1           C           G
Praise ye the Lord.
F           C
Praise ye the Lord
C           G
From the heavens:
F                   G C
Praise him in the heights.

2           C           G
Praise ye him,
Am       D
All his angels:
C           G
Praise ye him,
F       C
All his hosts.

3           C           G
Praise ye him,
F           C
Sun and moon:
C           G
Praise him,
F                   G C
All ye stars of light.

4           C           G
Praise him,
Am       D
Ye heavens of heavens,
C           G
And ye waters
F                   C
That be above the heavens.

5           C           G
Let them praise
F                   C
The name of the Lord:
C                   G
For he commanded,
F                   G
And they were created.

6           C                           G
He hath also stablished them
Am       D
For ever and ever:
C                   G
He hath made a decree
F                   C
Which shall not pass.

7           C           G
Praise the Lord
F           C
From the earth,
C           G
Ye dragons,
F       G C
And all deeps:

8           C           G
Fire, and hail;
Am       D
Snow, and vapour;
C           G
Stormy wind
F                   C
Fulfilling his word:

9 C G
Mountains,
F C
And all hills;
C G
Fruitful trees,
F G
And all cedars:

10 C G
Beasts,
Am D
And all cattle;
C G
Creeping things,
F C
And flying fowl:

11 C G
Kings of the earth,
F C
And all people;
C G
Princes, and all judges
F G C
Of the earth:

12 C G
Both young men,
Am D
And maidens;
C G
Old men,
F C
And children:

13 C G
Let them praise
F C
The name of the Lord:
C G
For his name alone is excellent;
F G
His glory is above the earth and heaven.

14 C G
He also exalteth
Am D
The horn of his people,
C G
The praise of all his saints;
F C
Even of the children of Israel,

C G
A people near unto him.
F C
Praise ye the Lord.
C G
(Praise ye the Lord.)
F G C
(Praise ye the Lord.)

The Tank HRN 09 Sept 1924

17

1. Rolling down the hallway
 Is it a Pershing M-26?
 moving down
 Everything in sight.
 Climbing the steps
 It looks like Patton on the march
 Crossing the Rhine on the way to Nuremberg's height

2. As sound blasts out
 It's like Israel in the Sinai
 Giving their neighbors
 An eye for an eye
 Yet when he stops
 To give a loving hug
 Everyone forgets
 All the slugs

3. Robert Lewelwyn is the name of this little man
 Whose spirit is larger than an hundred galatian
 Full of life and love and energy galore
 He's the kind of child one can't help but adore

26 Apr 1930
 4. Though eyes can flash
 Like an M-16 on fire
 When speaking to Charly with a heart full of ire
 He melts like ice
 In the nook of my arms
 Smiling to show
 The depths of his charm
